

Insolvency

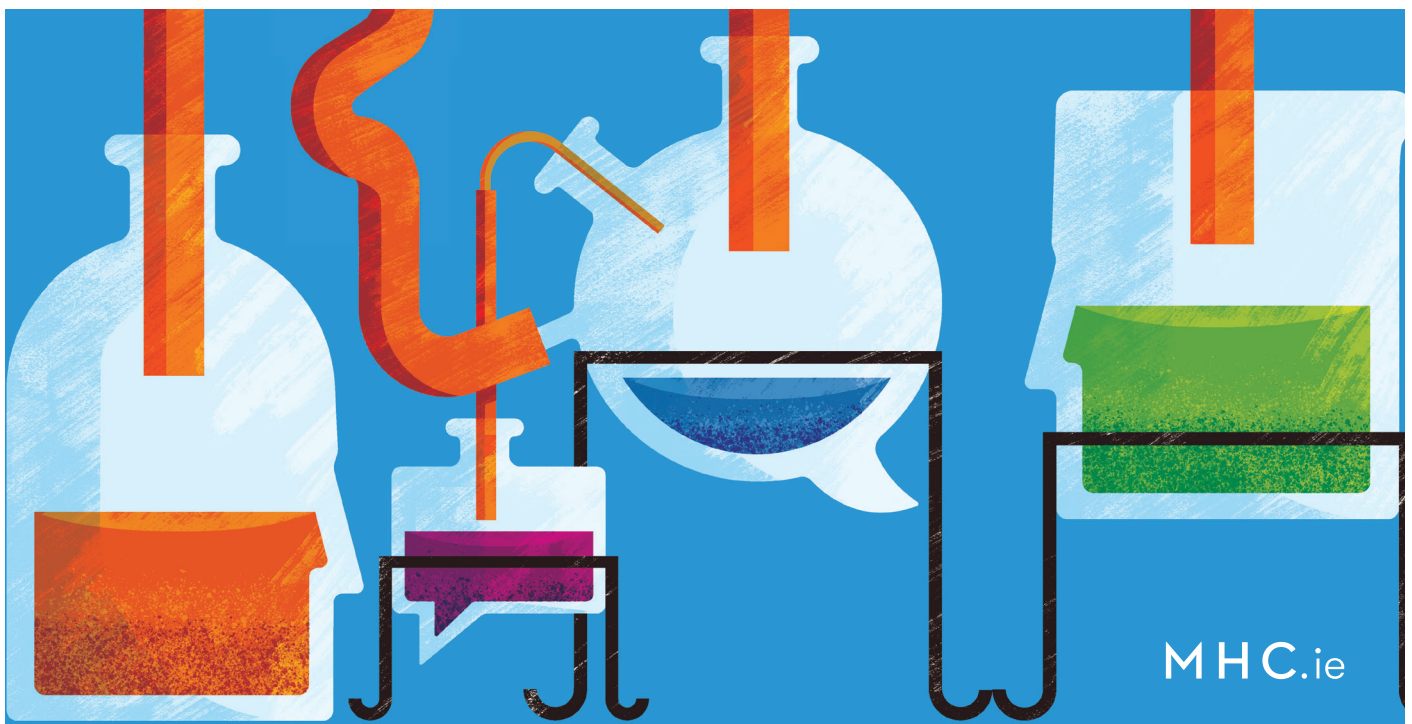

As one of the largest insolvency teams in Ireland, we have unrivalled experience acting in high profile and complex insolvencies. This gives us a unique understanding of issues affecting this challenging area.

We have a strong reputation advising on examinership matters. We routinely assist in the sale or purchase of distressed assets, either in a restructuring or through formal processes.

Our clients range from international and Irish banks and insolvency practitioners to bondholders and shareholders in distressed circumstances.

Our Expertise

- Examinerships
- Bankruptcy
- Insolvency risk
- Insolvency related disputes
- Restructuring and reorganisation
- Obligations of directors, shareholders and creditors

Our Experience

Our highlight cases include:

- Advised Lone Star Funds on the €2 billion Project Clear loan portfolio acquisition, including an extensive due diligence exercise and risk analysis review
- Advised on the examinership of the Regency Hotel including the refinancing of debt, which included a restructuring of the McGettigan group
- Successfully acted for Invesco Real Estate Fund, the owner of a large shopping centre in Dublin, in the examinership of Debenhams Retail
