

Planning

Our team has specialist expertise advising on both contentious and non-contentious planning and environmental law.

We have extensive experience in advising and acting for state bodies and developers on major projects on all aspects of the consenting process, including compulsory acquisition.

We represent state bodies, banks, developers, contractors, engineers and other construction professionals on planning and environmental matters.

Our Expertise

- Planning Law
- Environmental Law
- Litigation, Arbitration, Mediation
- Compulsory Acquisition

Our Experience

- We have acted in numerous High Court, Commercial Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court matters, as well as before the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- We regularly act in oral hearings before An Bord Pleanála. We advise on the preparation of applications for consents, including advising from the outset of a project, attendance at pre-application meetings with An Bord Pleanála, advising on Environmental Impact Assessment and Appropriate Assessment, including the preparation of Environmental Impact Statements and Natura Impact Statements.

About Us

As legal and regulatory responsibilities become more complex, progressive organisations need measured advice to help realise their ambitions. The expertise we bring is rooted in unrivalled knowledge of your industry, so our advice is always set in its commercial context. We empower our international and domestic clients by giving focused recommendations and a clear understanding of their options. We solve the issues you face today and anticipate the challenges you face tomorrow.

We are a business law firm with 80 partners and offices in Dublin, London, New York and San Francisco.
