

Wind Energy

Clients in the wind energy sector know us for our exemplary work on transactional, regulatory and commercial issues.

Energy projects are complex and clients rely on us to identify and manage risk early in a project life cycle. Our specialist team possesses market-leading expertise in regulation, construction, planning, financing, acquisitions and disposals. We offer the most comprehensive suite of legal services available to Irish wind energy market participants.

We have acted for developers and lenders on the project financing of wind farms with a combined finance value in excess of €2.8 billion and an energy generation capacity in excess of 1.76GW. Our clients include leading investors, developers, financiers, utilities and regulators.
