

Competition & Antitrust

Our internationally recognised team has been centrally involved in establishing new precedent in Irish competition law. The commercial needs of our clients in this complex area demands sophisticated, tailored advice.

Increased regulation, EU mandates and standard harmonization creates an additional burden for businesses. Our focus is to identify and minimise this impact for our clients. We have acted in a number of the most recent in-depth Phase II investigations by the Irish Competition and Consumer Protection Commission.

We regularly advise Government, first movers and entrants on creating new markets in energy, broadcasting and telecoms.
