

Copyright Litigation

Our team handles copyright disputes across a wide range of industry sectors including the education, social media and entertainment industries.

We work with clients in developing a tailored litigation strategy to suit the unique circumstances of each individual case.

Our extensive experience in copyright disputes coupled with our ability to understand and incorporate our clients' business interests set our practice apart.

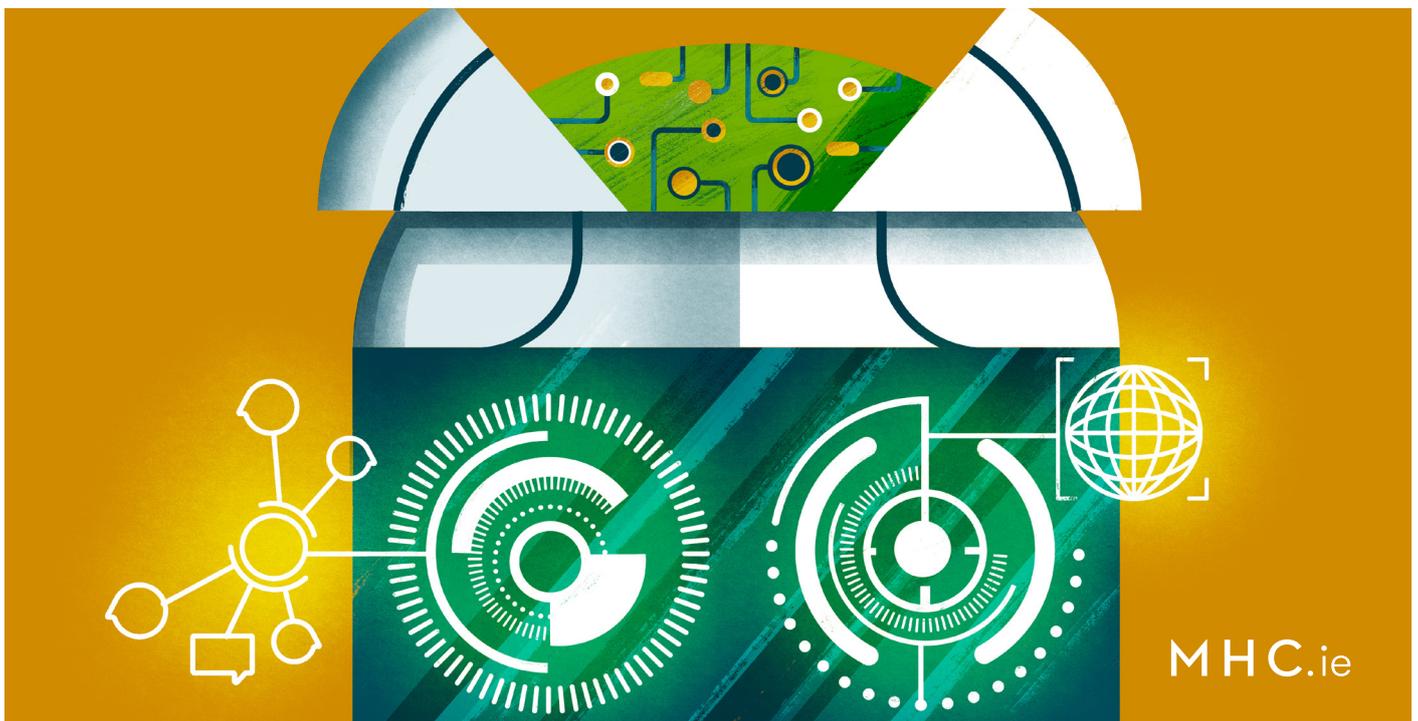

We regularly advise clients on copyright matters with a particular emphasis on online copyright disputes and intermediary liability issues.

We are involved in the majority of High Court copyright cases to come before the Irish courts in recent years.

Our team is a leading and trusted advisor to a wide variety of multinationals and indigenous companies and enjoys long-standing relationships with international colleagues.
