

Commercial Contracts & Sourcing

We have one of the largest dedicated commercial contracts teams in Ireland. Relying on our deep knowledge of your sector, we act as business advisors to negotiate the best terms.

We advise on the drafting and negotiation of every type of contract, from standard terms of sale to complex ICT and outsourcing arrangements. We specialise in complex, high-value commercial transactions.

We advise a wide range of public and private clients in various industries, applying our strategic and business knowledge to support our clients' interests.

Our Expertise

- ICT contracts
- Framework and Master Service Agreements
- Partnership and collaboration agreements
- Distribution and agency contracts
- Procurement contracts
- Terms of sale / service
- Marketing, advertising and media contracts
- Sales and promotion laws

Our Experience

Our highlight deals include:

- Advising the Department of Communications, Energy and Natural Resources on one of the highest value and strategically important contracts currently being negotiated in Ireland, for the roll out, operation and maintenance of next generation broadband access wholesale services across Ireland
- Advising Anonymous Content, a Los Angeles film company, on the Irish law aspects of the films “Spotlight” and “The Revenant”
- We act for a global provider of high tech security software, advising on an agreement for the supply of their system for use by an Irish financial institution’s online banking platform
